18 W Boscawen St. Winchester, VA

Mr. Grove studied architecture at Carnegie Mellon University. Upon graduation, he relocated to New York City where he was engaged by such prominent firms as Cabrera-Barricklo, Architects, and later, David Smotrich & Associates. During his employment, he served as Project Architect for the AIA award-winning Woodstock Meadows Residential Community in Woodstock, New York, as well as Sailor's Snug Harbor Cultural Center on Staten Island, New York; the conversion of the Stuyvesant Hotel in Kingston, New York; the renovation of the Residence Halls at State University of New York in Stony Brook; as well as a number of custom residential and commercial interior projects in Manhattan.

In 1993, Mr. Grove established his own practice in New York City. Realizing the potential for both new construction projects and preservation efforts in the quad-state region, Mr. Grove returned to his home state of West Virginia in 1994 where he was joined by his wife and partner, Lisa Dall'Olio. During that time, Mr. Grove lead many projects for clients such as the US District Courts, General Services Administration, Shepherd University, Veteran's Affairs Administration, as well as numerous private sector residential and municipal clients.

In 2016, GDA relocated their office to the City of Winchester where Mr. Grove has engaged in many regional clients such as Shenandoah University, WVU Medicine, The City of Winchester as well as private developers and contractors.
